

THE VOICE OF REASON

October 2009

LOS ANGELES CENTER OF RELIGIOUS SCIENCE

Making A Difference

The fact that you are the point at which the Wholeness of Spirit finds complete expression is not predicated on how you act, what you do, what you think, or how you feel. It is based on what you are, regardless of all these things.

When "Spirit put the stamp of individuality upon Itself, and called it you," there was no small print attached that required you to live your life in a certain way. Spirit left the way you live your life up to you. Spirit placed Its wholeness at the center of your mind, allowing you to experience or ignore It, to act in a way which reflects It, or denies It, feel one with It or separate from It. We are free to do with our spiritual nature what we will.

Life According To You

Dr. David J. Walker

The greatest gift you will ever give yourself is to accept yourself without judgment and to forgive yourself for not having lived the kind of life you think you should have. It's time to create a new life by remembering who you are.

SPIRIT HAS SET THE STAMP OF INDIVIDUALITY UPON ITSELF AND CALLED IT YOU.

Ernestly Speaking . . .

There is only one thing that I ask of you and that is that you will believe absolutely that this thing works. If you do not believe it works it will not work, because everything is belief. Everything is mind and all operation is thought, and there is not a law in the universe that is not the power of mind in action and there never was and there never will be. Anything you ever saw or ever will see is simply the result of mind in action.

Treatment for October

Divine Presence

I realize that there is a Divine Presence at the center of my being. I let this recognition flow through my entire consciousness. I let it reach down into the very depths of my being. I rejoice in this realization. I am now made vigorous and whole. I possess the vitality of the Infinite. I am strong and well. Every breath I draw is a breath of perfection, vitalizing, animating, and renewing every cell of my body. I am born of the Spirit. I am in the Spirit. I am the Spirit made manifest.

I know there is one Mind, one Spirit, and one Body — the Mind, the Spirit, and the body of God — the Universal Wholeness, the ever-present Good, the all-sustaining Life. I now seek to realize the significance of this One Mind and this One Body. I now become aware that the One Mind is acting through my body in accord with Its own Divine Perfection, Peace and Harmony. The Divine circulates through me automatically, freely. Every atom of my being is animated by Its action. I know that at all times I have a silent, invisible Partner walking with me, talking with me, operating through me. Continuously, I keep my mind open to Its guidance, to Its inspiration and illumination. I am one with deep, abiding peace. I know that all is well.

— ERNEST HOLMES

What We Learn From Dogs . . .

Live simply.

Love generously.

Care deeply.

Speak kindly.

Remember, if a dog was the teacher you would learn things like:

When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.

Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joyride.

Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure Ecstasy.

Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.

On warm days, stop to lie on your back on the grass.

On hot days, drink lots of water and lie under a shady tree.

When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.

Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.

Be loyal.

Never pretend to be something you're not.

If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.

When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by, and nuzzle them gently.

ENJOY EVERY MOMENT OF EVERY DAY!

Lessons of Truth

Rev. Marian G. Moon

YOUR SPIRITUAL PATH

At some point we shall all become aware that we live in a Presence which is all intelligence and life. Raymond C. Barker stated, "We are in a Process which knew exactly what to do. There is something within us capable of being greater than we are at this moment. The more we identify with this process the larger our concept of Self becomes." He said, "Nothing in the universe needs to be changed except as a concept."

Each in our own way is on a path of unfolding this awareness for conscious expression. The more motivated we are by this divine purpose the more we are able to let it flow through us for experiencing the Self in its fuller expression. Innately we all desire this but may not have connected with this in our conscious awareness.

Spiritual Mind classes afford us the opportunity for conscious realization. They help us understand a Principle which governs all and to identify with that Something that has the answers we require.

Consider taking a Science of Mind class this fall. It will expand your consciousness and help you know something about yourself that is positively wonderful.

Teaches

The Wisdom of Emerson*SOM 200 — Unit I

Ralph Waldo Emerson has been quoted by great writers for well over one hundred years. His teachings directly influenced what has become the New Thought Religions of the world.

When asked to sum up his work, Emerson said his central doctrine was “the infinitude of the private man.”

This course is required for Practitioner licensing and may be taken in tandem with SOM 300.

The Spiritual PathSOM 100 — Unit I

The Spiritual Path is a journey in the development of consciousness. Although many of us take different routes, it eventually leads to an awareness of the essential Self.

The eight-week class is based on Dr. Ernest Holmes' Science of Mind, which is our text for this unit. It covers the development of our teaching and the basic principles we use to live more creative lives.
